

SCOPE OF SERVICES:

The scope of services under this contract comprises the following:

A conceptual and feasibility study to investigate flows, the two pipeline routes, route approvals of OMRAN and any other affected parties, the method of connection to the STP, preliminary costs and report on the findings and determine the most practical solution that can be effectively achieved. A presentation shall be made to Haya and OMRAN to present the report and recommendations. Upon submitting and final approval of the conceptual study, the Consultant shall carryout preliminary and detailed design in accordance with the final approved conceptual study. The Consultant shall prepare construction tender documents in accordance with the final approved detailed design. The Consultant shall arrange for all tendering process requirements including responding to tenderers clarification during tendering period, evaluation of the construction tender offers, technically and commercially in accordance with Haya Water requirements and within the time frame stipulated in the Form of Tender. The Consultant shall supervise the Site works activities including provision of a qualified site supervision staff as shown in the Schedule of Prices.